CHARLES-TOWN, June 20.

AS the Motions of the French on the Ohio River, and the Measures they are at present pursuing there, threaten to disturb the Tranquillity of the British Provinces; it is greatly to be wish'd that the British Provinces would unite in some System or Scheme for the Public Peace and Safety. Such an Union would render us Respected by the French, for they are no Strangers to our Power, tho' they may perhaps suspect our Prudence; let us give them this Proof of our Wisdom, and they will hardly make any Experiment of our Strength. And as it may be very satisfactory to our Readers, to know what Steps have been taken by this Government thereupon, we therefore lay before the Public the following Information relating to that Matter.

On the 5th of last March His Excellency our Governor sent the following Message to the Assembly.

" Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

IN June last I received a Letter by Express from Governor Dinwiddie of Virginia, to which I returned an immediate Answer; and in November following a second Express brought me another Letter from that Gentleman, which being directed, as usual, to the Governor, or in his Absence, to the Council, was by them opened, I being then in the Cherokee Nation building a Fort, to this Letter the Gentlemen of the Council returned an Answer; and within these 3 or 4 Days a third Express brought me another Letter from him: These several Papers, together with a Letter from the Earl of Holderness, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, upon the same Subject, I send for

While a perfect Peace subsists betwixt Great-Britain and France, the French Subjects in America; or rather, the regular Troops of that Crown, enter, in an hostile Manner, into Countries that indisputably belong to the King of Great Britain; they seize upon the Effects of the British Subjects there, and make Prisoners of their Persons; they justify and avow these unwarrantable Proceedings, call the Country theirs; and publicly threaten to serve every Englishman in the same Manner, that shall be hardy enough to set his Foot in that Country for the future: And to enable them to make their Words good, they immediately build Forts there and mount Cannon, denouncing Destruction against our friendly Indians, if they will not be passive.

I am perswaded, that these Acts of Injustice will raise Indignation in every British Breast, and that you will think it high Time that such Insolence were repressed, and therefore, that your House will see the Expediency, and even Necessity, of such a general Plan as I have mentioned, for mutual Assistance, in which, you may assure yourselves, that all imaginable Care will be taken of the particular Interests of this Province; and that you will enable me to carry the same into Execution, in Conjunction with the other Governors: And I hope, you will do this the more chearfully, as these short Strifes betwixt the Subjects, is the most likely Way to preserve Peace betwixt the two Crowns; for, whatever may be the Designs of the French Court, Things are not as yet ripe for a Rupture, and therefore they will not support their Subjects, in such an open Invasion of the British Territories, or countenance such a bare faced Breach of the Peace, more especially, if we, without the Assistance of the Mother Country, drive them off, which I am sure we can do with great Ease.

therefore I have made it my constant Care, to prevent your being unnecessarily alarmed, and tho' the present unjust Attack requires Attention, let it not give you any uneasy Apprehensions, for if a proper Use be made of it, I am so far from thinking that it will prove prejudicial to us, that I am fully perswaded it will give Peace and Quiet to all the King's Colonies for many Years.

The French in this Part of the World, are hitherto very inconsiderable, compared to the English; our Extent of Territory is larger than theirs, our Soil far more fertile, our Ports much more convenient, the Number of our People is vastly greater; but above all, our Constitution is infinitely superior; 'tis worth contending for: In short, we are every way happier, richer, and stronger, and yet the handful of People that the French have upon this Continent, gives great Uneasiness, to the whole British Empire in America; the Reason is obvious; 'tis because the British Colonies generally act as so many separate and independent States, whereas if they would consider every Encroachment upon any of the Colonies as an Invasion of their own, as it is in Effect, and would be so just to themselves as generously to join in driving away the invaders, the French would be wise enough to furnish us with few opportunities of exerting our united Strength, and you will observe, by the Secretary of State's Letter to me, that this is the Measure that His Majesty is graciously pleased to point out to his People.

But before the united Strength of these Colonies can be properly applied, it is absolutely necessary that the particular Force of each respective Colony should be known and ascertained: By the Force of a Colony I understand, their Ability to defend themselves, and to contribute to the common Defence, or to the Offence of the common Enemy. The Strength of a Colony is chiefly to be computed from its Numbers and Wealth, Men and Money being now the Nerves and Sinews of War in all Countries; and therefore, before a mutual Agreement can be entered into by the Colonies, for their common Defence, or, in other Words, before such a League can rightly be formed, these capital Points must first be fixed; otherwise any Succours that may be occasionally sent from any particular Province, will be of little Service; and we shall gradually consume ourselves in vain, and waste our Strength to no Purpose; but when the respective Quotas that each Province is to supply upon every particular Emergency, is previously apportioned, there need be no Time spent in Deliberation; and as Dispatch is the Life of such Undertakings, Success I think will be certain.

But I shall finish this message, by stating the Fact as it appears from the several Letters.

This Scheme, which seems to be a salutary one, we are assured, was early communicated by our Governor to one of the Governments to the Northward, the most interested in its Success, and had it been realised there, 'tis probable, that long 'ere now the Quota of each Colony would have been fixed, and such a Plan of Operations agreed upon, and by this carrying into Execution, as would have made the French glad to secure a speedy Retreat to Canada; but that Government returned for Answer, " That they had no View at present to dislodge the French from the Forts they had unjustly built on His Majesty's Land, which (they say) may be considered afterwards, but that they wanted at present only to build two Forts, as a Sign of Possession, and as a safe Retreat upon Occasion. "

This Letter having been sent down to the Assembly by the Governor, was referred to the Consideration of a Committee, who having desired a Conference with a Committee of His Majesty's Council, upon the Subject Matter of the said Letter, a Report was agreed upon, which was unanimously approved of by both Houses; some Part of it is to the following Effect.

" That before we enter upon the Subject of the Letter which is referred to our Consideration, it is not improper to look back to the Expectation we had formed, from a former Letter of that Gentleman's, that he should be enabled by his Assembly, to take some very vigorous Measures to dislodge the French, which we observe in the last Letter, that Assembly have not done, and that he hath now no such Intentions; his professed Design being only to build two Forts, as a Sign of Possession, and safe Retreat upon Occasion.

That if he had considered our Resolutions, of readily agreeing to grant a Supply in Case of an Invasion of any of His Majesty's Colonies upon the Continent, there would have been no Room for his expressing Surprize at the Backwardness of this Province, (as he is pleased to term it) since he thereby had sufficient Reason to depend on a handsome Supply from this Government. "

The Report goes on to observe, " That this Province had been at a very large Expence in building Forts to cover our Western Frontiers, and for many Years maintaining Garisons in them; in building a Fort in the Cherokee Nation, above 300 Miles from Charles-Town; and in fortifying our principal Sea-Ports: That the Expence, tho' great, had been chearfully borne, without making Application to any of the neighbouring Colonies for the Reimbursement of any Part thereof. That we had, upon many Occasions, expended great Sums in aiding our Neighbours. " And after mentioning Particulars, the Paragraph concludes thus, " The Committee think it their Duty to declare, the strong Inclination this Province has, to be contributary in the Assistance that may be required for repelling the Invasion of the French, and therefore adhere to their former Resolutions on that Head. "

CHARLES-TOWN, June 20.

On Sunday the 9th Inſtant, a Fire broke out in an Out Houſe at the Plantation of Chriſtmas Croft, Eſq; commonly known by the Name of Forty nine, which entirely conſumed the ſaid Dwelling Houſe he had there, with ſome of the Furniture, and all the Out-Buildings. It was ſoon after ſuſpected that they were wilfully ſet on Fire, and two of Mr. Croft's Negro Wenches were taken up on this Suſpicion, who have been ſince examined, tried, and convicted, and are to be burnt on Monday next.

Laſt Thurſday Morning the Rev. Mr. Geo. Whitefield arrived in Town from the Southward, and the ſame Evening preached in the New England Meeting. On Monday he ſet out for the Southward again, after having preached twice every Day during his Stay.

By ſeveral Veſſels from Jamaica, we have Advice, that they were in the utmoſt Diſtreſs in that Iſland, for Want of Rain, having had a Drought there for nine Months; but ſome Letters by theſe Veſſels ſay, they had juſt had ſome plentiful Showers. —— Upon this News, it was attempted here to raiſe the current Price of Rice to 50 l. per Cent. but the Attempt has fail'd, for, upon very particular Inquiry, we find, that only one of the Jamaica Captains has given that Price, in order to get back as ſoon as poſſible.

At Antigua too, they had a Drought which continued five Months; but they have lately had ſome fine Rains there alſo.

We have the like Accounts from Providence, Cuba, St. Croix, &c. In ſhort, Droughts this Year ſeem to be complained of almoſt throughout the Weſt-Indies; and, unleſs we have Rain ſoon here, it may likewiſe become a Complaint in Carolina.

We have as yet received no certain Account of the Arrival of the Jamaica Man of War (with one of our Independent Companies on board) at Virginia; but ſhe was ſpoke with about a Month after ſhe left this, off Cape Hatteras, and ſpared the Veſſel that ſpoke with her ſome Proviſions and Water.

The Tryton, Kitchen, from Philadelphia for Cape-Fear, and the King George, Dunſcomb, from the Bay of Honduras for New-York, are both put into this Port; the former for a Pilot, the latter for Proviſions, Water, and other Neceſſaries.
